Suzanna's baby is a boy and we are all happy and excited about that. Watched "Great Scenic Railways Journeys". Chris went to CO for job training.

Mar. 5, 2013 - Tues. - Walked. Lori came and vacuumed and dusted my house. She brought lasagne and other food leftovers....enough for several dinners.....bless her! I am reading "The Bee Keeper's Pupil" which is a fascinating book. Took car in to be serviced. Only needed an oil change. Was 15 minutes late as I got a little lost.

Mar. 6, 2013 - Wed. - I to temple. Visited Kay after. Home, ate breakfast and read scriptures, as always. Got sleepy so took a nap. John called on his commute home.....always enjoyable.

Mar. 7, 2013 - Thurs. - Walked. Hairdo. Reams. Reconciled bank statement. Doug shaved off his beard.....YEA! He looks 10 years younger with it gone. He was here about 2 hours. Sometime during the day Bradford called and left a message....(but I didn't record what he said).

Mar. 17, 2013 - Sun. - Jim and Bonita Robertson gave the Sacrament Mtg talks and both very very good, of course, as they are both students of the gospel all the time. Bill Strong taught the Gospel Doctrine class and did an excellent job. Ilisa taught her first R.S. lesson and was terrified (I felt sorry for her). All the sisters were helpful and kind, of course. Went to Chris & Lori's for dinner to celebrate Marnie's 20th birthday. Delicious dinner. Her birthday cake collapsed on one side..... funny looking but tasted great! Reminded us of the cake the three Fairies made when they were not allowed to use their magic, so that was fun. Always enjoy being together.

talk with Keith on the phone. Did more work on my journal. Saw Travis Smiley reports "Education Under Arrest".

Mar. 28, 2013 - Thurs. - We walked. Went to Walmart. No hairdo as Melanie went to a relative's funeral. Doug came today and John called so I turned on the speaker and we had a 3-way visit, which was fun. I was too tired to work outside today.

Mar. 29, 2013 - Fri. - We walked. I worked outside. Cut the roses way back so don't know how they will do this year. My arms are puny so I couldn't make clean, sharp cuts but sort of mashed the canes and that can't be a good pruning job. Keith came to do work on the garage door but he was all dressed up for a date so I talked him out of working. He has had another misunderstanding with Larena so we had a long talk and he is confused as what to do. He loves her and I think she loves him but they don't know how to communicate well at all, so there are lots of problems. All I can do is listen but don't give advise.

Mar. 30, 2013 - Sat, - We walked. Visited with a park friend who is a school teacher. She parked her car, ran and gave us big hugs 🙏 We saw another bird fly into a tree trunk slot with bird-nesting materials.....

This tree is a different one than what we saw before so we are excited!

Keith came and is working on dirt and gravel that is sinking by the driveway. I dug up grass that is invading the raspberries but it is such a big job I only got partly done. Later Dwight came with Roundup to take care of the rest of it.
