

John Larsen <theclaw56@gmail.com>

Email!!!

Joyce Larsen <linenLady9@larsen-family.us>
To: Phillip Larsen <phillip.larsen@myldsmail.net>
Cc: john@larsen-family.us

Fri, Sep 24, 2010 at 11:56 AM

Hello, Dear Elder Phillip Larsen!

I wanted to be sure you have an email from me in your in-box today. I don't know what time you would usually use the computer, but since I have not yet received anything today, it is probably not quite yet :).

I loved your email. And your snail mail. You said your email was rushed, and I'm sure it felt that way, but you were able to give us lots of news anyway, and it was wonderful to hear from you. We'll be writing snail mail for you this weekend, with pictures and things. Have any more missionaries from your district gotten visas this past week? I guess everyone just needs to be patient, and know it's in the Lord's hand, and enjoy wherever you are and whatever you're doing right now.

Here is the address I have for the Wilsons:

11708 San Victorio Ave. NE
Albuquerque, NM 87111-5954

I'm not sure if they are moved in just yet or are still in the hotel. They were going to get some painting done before moving in, but the house is theirs, so I'm sure they are getting mail. They would love to hear from you, and hopefully they will write back.

Dad said my letters are LONG, and I'll continue to make the ones you get printed out (whether by dearelder.com or by snail mail) as long as I want, but I know your time is limited on reading/writing emails, so I'll just say this: I love you and I miss you, but I'm thrilled you're a worthy missionary, and I would have it no other way!

Love,

Mom

[Quoted text hidden]

> Argh I am still getting used to this schedule!Have the trees started to change yet in NH? Being

[Quoted text hidden]

> our emails and there has been a lot that happened in the past week.I would love it if you could

[Quoted text hidden]