Hello, Family!

We got a rare, five-minute call from our missionary last night (does this sound familiar, Gwendolyn?). Unfortunately, Julia and I were out and couldn't talk to him, but John and Heather were there, and gave a good report. He was sounding really good, they said.

He will be leaving on Monday at 5am to go to Lubbock, TX, to serve as a missionary until his visa comes in. He will be going with a couple of other Elders who will also serve in the Brazil Teresina Mission when their visas come in. Phillip said the re-assignments come through the Quorum of the Twelve. I think that's neat. The Lord is there every step of the way. We'll update you on Phillip's address when we know more.

Love,
Joyce
