Thank you for your replies to my last email. I have just been having trouble recognizing prayers. Also, I have been doing a little better with the language. I don't know how to thank the Dias's for their love and kindness towards me. They are an amazing family. Thank you for getting me to be in good habits and making me know that spiritual habits and strength (daily prayer, daily scripture study) are important because I would not be the same person that I am today. Dad I would like to hear more about your mission. I realize that I did not ask you too much and I wish I did when it was easier to communicate and see the stuff but I am so grateful for modern day technology.

Love you lots and miss you,

Love,

Elder Phillip Larsen
