Hello Dear Phillip,

Our house is running on the generator right now. Power went out Sunday morning at about 7:00 AM. President Coopridier directed that church be cancelled for the entire stake. I started up the generator around noon and it ran until about 4:00 PM when it the gas tank became empty. We had Sacrament Meeting at home. Heather and Rachel were here so it was a group of 5. It was one of the best home sacrament meetings we have ever had. Instead of a talk we had a lesson using the Gospel Principles manual. Rachel led the discussion on Chapter 19 "Repentance". I started the generator back up around 7:00 PM so Joyce could do dinner and we could do the evening stuff. I'll turn it off for the night in a little while.

90,000 customers are still without power as of 9:00 PM Sunday. We're among those. Cherokee Ave is without power but it appears all the streets around us are all okay. Rachel's house has power. The Henkels had a couple of power bumps, but never really lost power. George just left a few minutes ago after making a home teaching visit here. He will be going to Alabama this week for work. He travels quite a bit.

Well... read my first email for stuff about the rest of the week. Know that we are all well and the house is fine.

Love,

Dad
