My Sunday was lovely. I do love my calling, but it was really nice to attend our home ward, and not have to teach a lesson, or do training after, or drive a long way to get there. And my large email told you about the actual meetings. Also, the weather was lovely. And I had a nap!

Monday so far is good. The usual Monday things, and trying to figure out how to do everything that needs to be done. I will need a nap, I think. Five hours of sleep is not enough! I realize I don't get enough when eight hours seems luxurious, and quite decadent!

What will you do today for fun? Have you already done laundry and so forth?
