

Christmas Blessings to You from
The Larsens

Once again it's time to pause amid all the hustle and bustle and think about the true gifts of the season - - joy, peace, and the love of family and friends.

Certainly, at times like this, you always come to mind. May this Christmas be full of every blessing your heart can hold as we celebrate the birth of the Lord Jesus Christ. His star still shines in the hearts of all who seek Him.

Have a very Merry Christmas and a wonderful new year.

With our love,

Merlin and Roberta
