Querido Mae e Pae,

I just wanted to say that I have been thinking about Stanford a lot and how we're serving together on our missions at the same time. I remembered that his anniversary was coming up this Sunday. I have told several people about that experience during the Plan of Salvation lesson, and it has been a great testimony builder for them and a testimony builder for me as well.

I also wanted to apologize for how difficult I was in my teenage years and wanted to let you know that I finally understand that scripture about being compelled in all things. Sorry that I took reminding to do jobs all the time O_o

Sometimes I get hard on myself about stuff and am too hard on myself but I always look forward to hearing from you and hearing from home. Its amazing the things you take for granted when you're at home and then when you're on your mission you wish you could have more of.

Thank you for all that you've done for me in helping me be prepared to serve a mission. For teaching me in the Gospel of Jesus Christ and for teaching me like the stripling warriors were taught. You're great parents and I am very grateful for all the love you gave me even though it may have been hard because I was being a tweenager :P I love you a lot and miss you both. You're awesome!

Love,

Elder Phillip Larsen
