Thanks for the emails!

Really quick, because I have limited time:

Mom, could you encourage people to write letters? I don't know if anyone has written anything because I have not yet recieved any mail since arriving here. I will let you know when I get the letter from Oma and Papa.

This past week I had an experience where I was hit really hard with the reality with what happened to Stanford, it was hard and trying. I too have moments where I feel more spritually laxed, and others where I feel spiritually strong.

One thing really quick, thank you for having me take piano lessons. I am very grateful for the talent I have now in that, and I have had a few opportunities to play here in Brasil, not for meetings or anything. I need to improve on that.

I love you lots, and I miss you. Homesickness has been a bumber, but I'm dealing with it the best I can. Thanks for everything!
Until next week!

Love,

Elder Phillip Larsen
